

I don't believe that the FCC should implement any proposal that will lessen Indiana's telephone privacy act law. We used to receive on average 5 - 10 calls per week. We now get less than one per week, if that. It is so nice to be able to answer the phone and not be harrassed by a solicitor. For this reason I am extremely happy with the law in Indiana.